

Course Hazardous Hot Work 2012

Work with tools/machines that generate heat or sparks in some form is called Hot Work. Regulations from the insurance companies demands that people responsible for fire protection are educated and holds certificate for hazardous hot work.

Contents

The course includes fire knowledge, actual safety rules, regulations from the insurance companies, organization within temporary workplaces, and practice.

Purpose

After the course, the participant shall be able to take preventive measures at Hazardous Hot Work, to minimize risks of fire and other damage. Participants that passes the test, receives certificate.

Target group

Employees and contractors that performs Hazardous Hot Work. Supervisors, contractors and business leaders which orders Hazardous Hot Work and have the formal responsibility.

Legitimacy

The course gives legitimacy for Hazardous Hot Work for five years.

Registration

Registration can be done on telephone 0303-65420 or by email info@eldochvatten.com. The registration must include name and email of the participants.

Course fee

The course fee is 1795 SEK / participant

Minimum number of participants at each course are 5 pers and maximum are 16.

If there are less than five participants, we can have the course with an extra fee per course.

1 part. = + 2 000 SEK 2 part. = + 1 500 SEK 3 part. = + 1 000 SEK 4 part. = + 500 SEK

The course fee includes study material, coffee, lunch and certificate after passed test.

All amounts are exclusive of VAT

Location and time

The course is held at Eld & Vatten's office in Stenungsund. In case of other location, there will be extra charge for travel expenses. Time of course are 0800-1600.

Payment

The fee for the course are invoiced 30 days in advance and expires before the course. A possible extra fee because of to few participants can be invoiced after the course.

Notice

You will be notified two weeks in advance of the course, including information about time and place for the course.

Cancellation of booking

In case of cancelation of the booking within 14 days before the course-day, a repayment of 80 % will be done. In case of cancelation of the booking within 5 days before the course-day, a repayment of 50 % will be done. In case of cancelation of the booking within 4 days before the course-day, no repayment will be done.

Cancellation of course

If the number of participants are to low, we reserve us the right, at least 14 days before the course, to move the course ahead in time. This applies even if the course leader are sick and no substitute are available. We are not responsible for any costs of the participants in case of a cancelled course.